

Axbridge Community Civic Award

2012

Citation

This award is given to Pauline Ham for her outstanding contribution to the community of Axbridge.

Pauline's commitment to the town goes back many years. Outside her work on the Town Council, she helped expand the Girl Guide unit in Axbridge and has been involved in setting up numerous other activities for the youngsters in the town.

As chairman of the Sports and Social Club, it is Pauline's determination and drive that helps ensure Christmas trees for the Town every year, presents for Father Christmas to give to all the young Axbridge children at the annual Santa in the Square, and fun for young and not so young at the annual Fun Day in the summer.

The money raised by the Sports and Social Club supports numerous local groups and helps bring the town together as a community.

Pauline always has a great sense of integrity in everything that she commits to, and in her willingness to just get on with the job she plays a key part in making these community occasions memorable fun events for everyone. This Civic Award is proof of how much respect people in Axbridge have for Pauline.
